

HOW THE BIOMAT® WORKS

The Biomat has three primary therapeutic components, each of which contributes to the effectiveness of the product. These therapeutic components are:

- The generation of Far Infrared Rays (FIR)
- The generation of Negative Ions
- Focusing this energy through a matrix of Amethyst Crystal

The deep penetrating power of Far Infrared Rays stimulates every system of the body from the inside out. As Infrared is radiated into the body, it resonates with the frequencies of organic molecules and cells causing them to vibrate, heat up and expand. In turn, blood vessels, capillaries, nerve endings and organelles expand, making the body feel fully charged and energized in just the same way a bell struck at regular intervals vibrates and moves faster and faster. This causes a net increase in metabolism helping cells to divide faster, nervous signals to move faster and healing to occur at a much accelerated rate.

The Negative Ions stimulate cell membranes of the body causing their ion channels to become active. This helps to alkalize all cells by removing cellular waste and toxins. Negative Ions also convert cells from "Fight or Flight" (Stress) mode, to Reproductive, Normal Functioning (Happy) Mode causing a sense of Deep Relaxation in the mind and body. Just as negative ions clean our air, they also clean out our cells.

Amethyst Crystals have been known to deliver both infrared and negative ions naturally. In this case the Amethyst crystal is not only used to focus the FIR energy of the Biomat but also helps to calm and protect the mind and nervous system.

This combination of therapy using FIR and Negative Ions traveling through a matrix of amethyst crystal delivers healing frequencies to the body creating a unique method of accelerated cellular regeneration which aids in many different modalities of healing.

These therapeutic components of the Biomat works to remove blockages creating better communication between the brain, the autonomic and sympathetic nervous systems and all organs of the body to balance and stabilize the bodies systems and strengthen the body's own self-healing power.

Summary

Combining the healing properties of far infrared light, negative ions and amethyst crystal creates a unique healing environment. To counteract the effects of toxins, harmful electromagnetic radiation, stress and illness, regular use of the BioMat can bring the body into a state where wellness and recovery and relaxation are a part of everyday life.

Used worldwide since 1997, there are thousands of testimonials from proponents of the BioMat attesting to its validity.
